

WE BRING THE PARTS STORE TO YOU

COMPANY FACT SHEET

- Formed in 2007, K & N Mobile Franchises, Inc. is a franchisor of mobile parts stores, called K & N Mobile Distribution Systems®, which provide electrical parts and tools to many types of businesses.
- Based out of a van, the mobile parts stores replenish small parts and tools to a variety of businesses within their designated territory.
- Customers vary from businesses that repair any type of machinery to manufacturing facilities, and a variety of up to 5,000 products can be stocked within each mobile store.
- K & N works with more than 75 manufacturers to provide inventory for its franchisees to sell to repair facilities and manufacturing businesses across the United States.
- Each franchise is independently operated, but supported by the parent company's vendor agreements, warehouse operations, and training operations in Fort Worth, Texas.
- K & N Mobile Franchises supports its franchisees with intensive training, an automated order system with barcodes, a voice-activated GPS system, prospect lists, and nearly 5,000 SKUs to get started.
- The parent company of K & N Mobile Franchises is K & N Electric, a privately held company founded in 1972 by Jerry Nelson. Curtis Nelson, his son, is the current president and CEO.
- K & N Electric's corporate headquarters is in the same building it has occupied since 1975 in Fort Worth, Texas, covering 17,000 square feet of warehouse and office space.
- The company currently owns and operates 12 "mobile parts stores" in the southern United States and serves more than 4,000 customers.
- K & N Mobile Franchises currently has eight franchises in operation in five states.
- K & N Electric is pursuing nationwide growth through K & N Mobile Franchises, and will oversee the management of franchisees in 46 states.
- K & N Electric has 26 employees.
- Company Web site: KandNMobile.com